FORWARD

It has been said that the only thing that improves by breaking is a record, and this statement is evident in all sporting events. All who enter them, whether they win or lose, enjoy the thrill of competition. The participants may compete against their own previous records, the records of their opponents, or the record of past opponents.

Each individual is constantly striving to do his best.

Whether it is a small school event or the great Olympic contest that is being held, the most important thing to remember is the adherence to good sportsmanship.

Obviously, we cannot all be athletic champions. The great majority lack the ability, and in some instances even the desire to display their physical prowess in great public exhibitions. Yet there is need, as there always has been, for what the philosopher Juvenal defined as "a sound mind in a sound body" -- a desirable combination of mental and physical development for the great mass of our youth.

Therefore, I strongly urge each student to take part in the physical education and athletic program of the Chicago Undergraduate Division in order to help develop your own mental and physical happiness.

JOHN O. JONES

DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

The Sports Program is designed to give every student opportunities to compete in a variety of activities on his own level. Not only are there opportunities to compete but the staff of sixteen coaches and instructors are well prepared and eager to teach all students skills in these activities.

Therefore, we urge you to actively participate, learn new skills, make new friends, and gain the most you can during the time you are here.

If you have the ability to make an intercollegiate team, talk with the coach of the sport in which you are interested and go out for the team. With the addition of soccer there are eleven sports on the intercollegiate level. Teams here have done well. The 1948-49 Gymnastics team won first place in the National A.A.U. Meet, defeating the best in the United States. The 1953 Baseball team won 25 games while losing only one. They have won the Chicago Intercollegiate Tournament more times than any other team. The 1953 Tennis team was undefeated and again went undefeated in 1954, winning 25 times in competition without a single lose. The 1953 and 1954 Wrestling team won twenty of twenty-three meets and won the Wheaton Invitational Tournament in competition with eight other colleges. The 1953-54 Basketball team lost only three games and won the Holiday Tournament. The 1954 Golf team won the Chicago Intercollegiate Tournament and won again in 1958.

During the 1955-56 year Carnell Neuman earned mention on two All-American football teams and signed a contract to play with the Chicago Cardinals. Oleh Karawan was selected first team All-American in Soccer and received his award in New York City.

The broad intramural program attracts approximately 1500 students into some type of competition each semester. In relation to total enrollment there are probably more students in some form of competitive athletics here than in any school of comparable size in the country.

Many have cooperated to make this program successful. Special thanks are due our administration here and in Urbana, the Athletic Association of the University, the fine staff of coaches and the students themselves.

We particularly want to thank the parents of our students who have cooperated so well. Any student may obtain I.D. cards for parents at the Men's Gymnasium. These cards will admit parents to all home games at no cost to them.

Please consider this handbook a personal invitation to take an active part in our program.

ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

Al Nestlinger (right) was unanimously elected as the Athlete of The Year by the five members of the final judging committee. Warren Silver (left), Sports Editor of PIER ILLINI, is presenting Nestlinger the Athlete of The Year Trophy, symbolic of the award.

The award, highest honor that may be given a UIC athlete, is made each year to the outstanding Chicago Illini athlete. The winner is elected by a preliminary PE Major vote and by a final judging committee composed of the athletic director, sports editor of PIER ILLINI, members of the Physical Education staff, and president of the Lettermen's Club.

Nestlinger was elected Athlete of The Year for the 1957-58 academic term. He was nominated for the award by Track and Cross Country Coach Sheldon Fordham who named him for being outstanding in both sports. Nestlinger is one of only six UIC athletes to be awarded letters for participation in three sports.

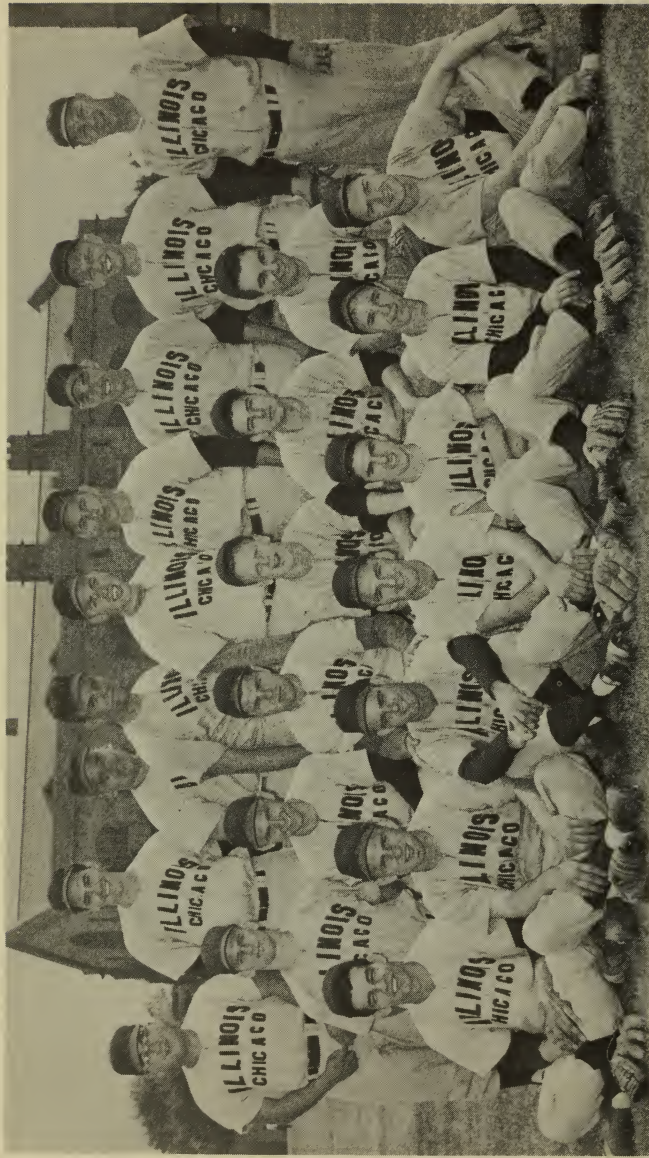

Captain in his freshman and junior years for the cross country team, Nestlinger was chosen as the Most Valuable Runner by his teammates in each of the three years he has participated. The 6'3" junior was the only harrier to win for the Chicago Illini, accomplishing the feat against Elmhurst twice and Quincy. Competing for Coach Chuck Kristufek's swimming team, Nestlinger developed into the squad's fastest breaststroker and was selected as the Most Improved Swimmer by his mates. Nestlinger was the number one hurdler and miler for the track team. April 19th Nestlinger broke the UIC 120-yard high hurdle record of :16 against Manchester when he came home in :15.8.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION SERVICE PROGRAM FOR MEN

GUIDANCE PROGRAM

The objective of guidance is to place students efficiently in classes with regard to their needs, abilities and interests.

The student's score on the Physical Education Placement Test is used to determine the type of activity in which the student may enroll. If the student scores less than 50 on the test, he is required to enroll in Developmental Activities. If he scores between 50 and 65, he may enroll in any of the Limited Choice courses. If he scores 65, he has the opportunity to enroll in any course he desires.

If the student has some handicap or impairing condition, he does not take the Physical Education Placement Test, but is placed in an Adaptive Sports Class (Prescribed Exercises) where he engages in activities of a remedial nature which are assigned specifically for his condition.

All of the physical education service courses are divided into four main areas in which activities are grouped. These areas are gymnastics, developmental activities, combatives, and recreational sports. A student is guided not to take more than two courses in any one area, thereby making it possible for the student to obtain variety in physical education activities.

Students with no experience in recreational activities are required to enroll in recreational activities during their final semesters in physical education.

Students may not enroll in courses for which they have already received credit.
